Product Description

- AirPods Pro owners frequently experience fit issues where one ear does not seal properly, compromising both sound quality and noise cancellation. The Airfome memory foam tips provide the perfect solution they did not know existed.
- AirPods Pro owners represent a massive, easily identifiable customer base in Australia. This is not a niche accessory, offering a highly significant addressable market for your store.
- Memory foam offers a massive upgrade over Apple's stock silicone tips. Customers instantly recognize this as a no brainer improvement to a high value product they have already invested in.
- Shoppers visiting electronics stores for cases or cables are already in an accessory mindset. These tips serve as an easy $20 add on that actively improves a $350 investment.
- This specific upgrade is highly recommended across tech forums and review threads. Customers discovering it online walk through your doors as highly motivated, pre-sold buyers.

Scale smarter with the right partner.
